

Check out the University Alliances Community (UAC), the newest member of the SAP Community Network. The UAC is designed to connect faculty, students, SAP customers and partners, and SAP internal experts. You'll find a rich set of education-focused content that will help you integrate SAP software into your courses, offering students real-life experience that translates into tremendous advantage in the marketplace. In the UA Library you'll find curriculum materials that were developed by program faculty, as well as articles, case studies, and whitepapers.
